WHAT DO YOU NEED TO BECOME A VOCATIONAL TRAINER AND ASSESSOR AT EVOLUTION HOSPITALITY INSTITUTE?

- a nationally recognised qualification in the discipline you want to teach; If you hold an international qualification, you must obtain an Australian qualification through recognition of prior learning assessment.
- a minimum of five years of industry experience (with positions held in senior leadership positions)
- Certificate IV in Training and Assessment [TAE40122] or a relevant education qualification

DO YOU POSSESS THE REQUIRED INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS, BUT LACK A CERTIFICATE IV IN TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT?

If you don't have a TAE teaching qualification, don't worry! This is an opportunity for you to be paid to learn on the job, part-time or full-time. The fully paid program will give you your teaching qualification in the first 12 weeks of employment. Once you're fully qualified, the company will continue to support your professional development and may even offer sponsorship to successful candidates who meet the eligibility criteria.

To succeed in this role, you'll need the appropriate subject knowledge, skills, and vocational qualifications from a recognised international institute within the culinary, pastry, or hospitality management programs. You should also have at least five years of industry experience, with a minimum of three years of relevant post-qualification industry experience at a supervisory level, outlet manager, chef de cuisine, head chef, or executive chef. You can still join the innovative "Paid to Learn" program if you don't have a Certificate IV or equivalent.

SPONSORSHIP AVAILABLE, SUBCLASS 482 PATHWAY TO PR FOR SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS:

As a successful applicant, you'll enjoy an attractive starting salary and the option to be paid to learn as you transition from industry to teaching.
